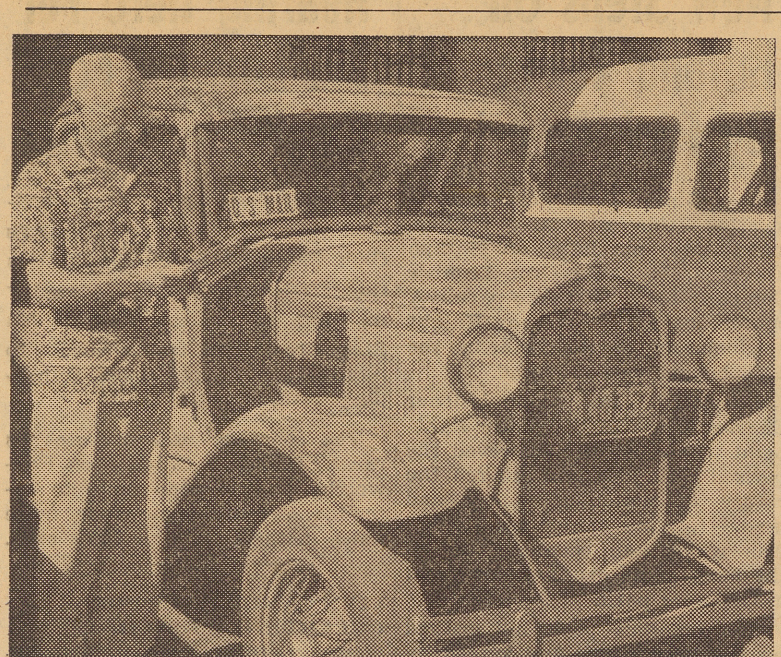
Vol. 63, No. 33 CAMPBELL, SANTA CLARA COUNTY, CALIFORNIA 10c per copy Thursday, September 1, 1955



Dan Yeager is shown sorting mail for the last time yesterday standing beside one of the Ford cars which have carried him over Rural Route 1 in Campbell for the last 34 years. He was honored at a testimonial dinner Saturday night at Villa Felice, attended by 150 postal workers of the area, route patrons and friends and at which Howard Smith, carrier of Rural Route 2 gave a resume of Yeager's career, presentation of a leather travelling bag by Hugh Nelson and a talk from State Senator Jack Thompson. (For details read Campbell Gambol, page 2)

Post Office Hints

RURAL DELIVERY ON WAY OUT HERE

For the first time since the Campbell post office was established before the turn of the century, there will be no rural routes, and all mail will be dispatched by city delivery, general delivery or box holder delivery, effective in about 30 days, according to Ira Grim, postmaster. Final approval to the plan is to be made at Washington.

There are today eight city delivery routes and two rural routes, the latter two to be converted to city motorized delivery and patrons will no longer be able to buy stamps, money orders or mail small packages with the carrier. The conversion has been recommended by Postmaster Grim and the office of the postal inspector.

There are 22,188 patrons in approximately 8,000 homes served by the Campbell postoffice in an area bounded on the west by Quito Road, south by Wedgwood, east by Camden and New Jersey and north by Downing avenue, according to Grim. The local office has recommended that the Cambrian Park branch serve a few boxes on Camden avenue and that Los Gatos serve eight boxes on Wedgwood.

Kemp Is To Direct Red Feather Drive

George B. Kemp, Vice-principal of Campbell High School, will head Campbell's 1955-56 Red Feather Campaign this fall for support of Community Chest youth, health and welfare agencies.

The Campbell Red Feather Campaign will be conducted in cooperation with Community Chest campaigns in San Jose, Santa Clara, Milpitas, Alviso, Cupertino and nearly 20 neighborhood communities.

Campbell'e ommunity Chest affiliated last February with the Community Welfare Council of Santa Clara County, Inc., which sponsors the Red Feather Campaign in Santa Clara County. The Campbell Community Chest later voted to disband the organization as an active unit.

Youth, health and welfare agencies which serve Campbell, including the Campbell Milk Fund and the Campbell Library Fund, will draw support in 1956 from funds raised in the 1955-56 Red Feather Campaign in central Santa Clara County.

Kemp's appointment as Campbell campaign chairman was announced by Robert C. Lindsey, general chairman of the campaign.

Kemp has served as teacher and administrator at Campbell High School for the last eight years. He is an experienced campaigner for health and welfare causes, having worked on the Campbell Community Chest campaign in previous years, on school fund-raising drives and on March of Dimes. He also has been active in Old Settlers' Day programs, has been a Hi-Y boys' advisor for the YMCA, a Red Feather agency, and currently is a Cubmaster for Boy Scouts, another Red Feather service.

The 1955-56 Red Feather Campaign in central Santa Clara Valley has a goal of $410,900 for support of 27 youth, health and welfare agencies which serve this area. Quota of the Campbell Red Feather appeal will be announced soon.

BUFFET PICNIC FOR CUB PACK TONIGHT

Cub Scouts of Pack 77 are having a buffet pot-luck picnic this evening in the picnic area of Campbell High School which is to be a surprise affair because no one is to know what others brought for food. Mothers are fixing the pot-luck dish which each boy likes best and it will be placed in a buffet to be served other cub scouts, according to Henry C. Kahrmann, Jr., cubmaster.

CROSSWALKS AT SCHOOLS TO BE PAINTED YELLOW

Crosswalks near school sites in Campell are to be painted yellow to conform with a new state law, according to LeRoy Black, city superintendent of streets. Cross walks not immediately adjacent to schools, but over which school children must walk are to remain white, unless directed otherwise by the State Attorney General's office. School crossings besides being painted yellow will have a warning message to motorists, "Slow, School X-ing."

Disaster Fund Here Now $341

A total of $341 had been raised in Campbell by noon yesterday for the disaster relief in flood and tornado struck New England States. Facilities were set up for additional contributions so long as the need continues, according to Raymond Bishop, drive chairman under Red Cross emergency direction and Laurance Hill, local chairman.

Bishop said that the Campbell Police department has placed cans around at business houses and public buildings to receive contributions. In the meantime the city council has passed a resolution published on page 2, endorsing the fund drive and urging generous contributions.

City To Prepare Own Sales Tax Ordinance

Reluctant about adopting a prepared resolution from the Inter-City Council in favor of a sales tax, the Campbell City Council on Monday set it aside and will prepare another resolution embodying only the points on which council is in agreement.

"This is a pressure deal on the Board of Supervisors" said Mayor Richard Morton on the point urging that cities endorse the Resolution by November 1 so the Board of Supervisors can act in January.

The resolution proposing a one per cent city sales tax to be re tained in full by the city and council indicating this was a matter for discretion of various cities. The phrase about Campbell being in dire need of this tax money was termed untrue. If the law is enacted by the Board of Supervisors and the city has not legislated for the tax, the county then would have access to the money.

Council referred to planning commission zoning proposal for a 10 acre tract to be used for power substation insulation and approved resolutions on Sanitation District easements in the Los Ranchitos subdivision at west Campbell Avenue and San Tomas Aquino Road.

The hearing on the proposed annex of a strip in the northeast fringe of Campbell along David Avenue extension east to Los Gatos Creek for a sanitation sewer trunk line, was continued so that one of the property owners could file a written protest. Lands are owned by Emily Gardner, Martha Casterson and J. Arello. City Attorney Joseph Bonacina said this was the legal way to make a protest, and that the City of Campbell was lenient in this instance as, without one already on file, the hearing could be closed and action taken.

Council referred back to the planning commission the application of Rosilio Stroppa to rezone lots on Harrison Avenue for use of his tile plant, contending this might lead to spot zoning. The matter is on the agenda for the commission meeting tonight.

Council also referred back to the planning commission Camp and Landono matter of approving horizontal dry wells instead of proposed holding pond in an area of Sunberry subdivision in accordance with letter from city engineer.

Council had to set a new tax rate using only three decimal figures because county tabulation machines won't handle five decimals, new rate being $.742.

Elmer D'Angelo, acting engineer said he found an old subdivision map approved by Board of Supervisors dedicating Harrison street north to Hamilton avenue.

LeRoy Black, street superintendent said he had used 15,000 gallons of spray on shade trees at a total cost of $120 after having been advised it would not be necessary to spray walnut trees.

Joseph Bonacina, city attorney and E. C. Merrill, city treasurer are to plan how city can invest some $70,000 in surplus and reserve funds in interest bearing securities permitted by law.

Ordinance No. 81 annexiing El Rio developing rezoning was approved on second reading.

Agreement with Union Oil Company regarding two foot strip on property at northwest corner Hamilton and Central is to be worked out with the city attorney and city engineer, station operators now being Beverly Hills Oil Stations, Inc.

Council adjourned until Tuesday September 6 to introduce an ordinance for a Bond election on October 18 to acquire and build a city hall, fire house and corporation yard.

Moose Lodge May Establish In Campbell

Plans are being made to establish a Lodge of the Loyal Order of Moose in Campbell under sponsorship of LeRoy Brooks of Salinas, district vice-President of the California Moose Association.

Among those interested in the Order here are Ed Peoples, Hugh Nelson Jr., Fred Stubblefield, Ray Traylor and Dr. John Wehinger. The only other Moose Lodges in the area are at San Jose, Redwood City and Salinas.

The lodge to be set up here would serve the West Valley and an effort would be made to start off with 500 charter members. The Loyal Order of Moose is a organization dedicated to the support of a home and school for the dependent children of deceased world-wide fraternal and patriotic members, known as Child City. Also a home for aged members and wives.

Local Barbers In Fund Drive

Yesterday was Union Barbers' Day for Crippled Children in California. Campbell barbers and most of the state's 10,000 A. F. of L. barbers participated in the event by donating a major portion of their day's wages to help crippled children.

Anthony Agrillo, secretary of Local 252 in Santa Clara County, reports that about 150 barbers in seventy-five shops took part in the fund raising event.

O.E.S. Planning Potluck Dinner

Campbell Order of Eastern Star will resume lodge activities for the Fall season when it holds its first meeting Friday, September 2, at 6:15 p. m., in I. O. O. F. Hall. Mrs. Marie Peterson, worthy matron, will preside.

A potluck dinner will precede the regular meeting and all members are asked to attend.

Police To Pick Up Unlicensed Bikes

Chief of Police Robert Locke has issued a warning to all owners of unlicensed bicycles 20 inches or over, ridden on Campbell streets, to bring their bicycles to the police station Saturday, or as soon as possible, for registration and licensing. Beginning Monday, all bicycles found unlicensed will be impounded until the owner has purchased a license and paid the storage fee, Locke said. This is a city ordinance which has been in effect the past year.

Owners are asked to bring their bicycles to the police station for registration and purchase of license on Saturdays from 2 to 4 p. m., The fee is one dollar. Both registration and license are permanent and serve as a means of identification if the bicycle should be lost or stolen.

Explorer Scouts of Troop 31 will be on hand to assist police.

STATE MAY DROP FREEWAY IN L. G. BUSINESS AREA

The state is making surveys for acquiring about 40-feet more right-of-way on the south side of Saratoga avenue between Tait and North Santa Cruz, possibly for use in widening Saratoga avenue approach to the new Route 5 freeway at Los Gatos.

The area contains four business houses and two residents, all of which probably will be forced to move if the 40-foot strip is acquired.

In addition, the Five-Spot-Drive-In at the southeast corner also would have to be moved to make way for a traffic island.

The four businesses are Louis Sporleders' Shell Service Station, the Village Hardware Store, Geoffroy's House and Garden Shop and Norman O'Connor Real Estate.

No one yet has actually started plans for moving, forth estate plans all are tentative and it probably would be sometime before actual clearing the area would begin.

It was announced a committee is planning a secret order hike for September.

Police Chief Robert Locke, troop advisor, asked the Explorers to help with bicycle licensing during the school term.

High School Boundary Lines Are Established

District Superintendent Laurance Hill announced the opening date for both Campbell and Camden High Schools is September 19, on which day he estimates 1700 students will resume their studies at Campbell High, and another 700 at Camden will have an inside glimpse of their new school. Only freshmen and sophomores will be enrolled at Camden this year, Hill said. All juniors and seniors in the district will attend Campbell.

With the exception of the gym, all classrooms under construction at Camden have been completed. Lawns and paving will be put in at a later date.

Dean Chamberlin, principal of Camden, said today all books and supplies stored at Campbell have been moved into Camden, the library is being set up, and school furniture and equipment installed. He expects all to be in readiness on opening day.

Clarifying boundaries, Chamberlin said the Camden District includes all the Burbank Elementary School District to the north, all territory east of the San Jose-Los Gatos Road and down to Apricot Way, then west on Apricot to the Campbell-Los Gatos Creek, and follows the creek south to the end of the high school district. Thus, the Camden District is composed of the northeast section of Campbell Elementary, and all of Burbank, Cambrian and Union Elementary Districts.

Chamberlin said there were three very good reasons in mind when mapping Camden's district. First, a spot check of every child from kindergarten through twelfth grade indicated this would be an approximate even population between schools in the near future since the Cambrian district is expanding rapidly. Second, the San Jose-Los Gatos Highway, Apricot Way, and the creek are well defined boundaries. Third, school authorities wished to avoid separating friendship groups.

Rotary Briefed On Fluoridation

"Fluoridation of Water" was the topic discussed by Chris Medbury of the San Francisco Water Works at the Rotary Club's Monday luncheon. Medbury said fluoridation was first introduced experimentally in 1945 on the east coast to a group of cities in the Newberg-Kingston area. Water in some of these cities was fluoridated while others were not. At the end of the ten year experiment, a survey showed that dental caries in the cities with fluoridation had been reduced 60% and no health damage reported. Medbury said San Francisco is now fluoridating its water and the cost is 6½c per person per year.

An announcement was made of a barbecue to be held September 19th at Pete Stewart's ranch for all members and their wives. There will not be a September 5th meeting.

Cel Gerevas conducted the business session and Homer Hyde was chairman of the day.

Boys' Plea For Help Costs Local Woman

Campbell police Friday evening turned over to juvenile authorities three youths, 11, 15 and 15 who admitted taking $20 from the wallet of a local woman after gaining entrance to her home on a plea for help. The boys were found by police in a local restaurant with the money evenly divided between them shortly after the complaint was made.

Mrs. Cauchee of 80 E. Rincon told police the boys rang her doorbell Friday evening about 7:00 p. m. and asked her to help one of the boys who had cut his hand. Two of the boys went with her into another room while she bandaged the cut and the third stayed in the living room. When the boys left Mrs. Cauchee said she discovered $20 missing from her wallet.

EDITORIAL

ROAD LITTERERS, BEWARE!

Some new laws are going into effect next Wednesday as the statutory 90-day period after adjournment of the Legislature expires.

Some of these laws affect agriculture, industry, education and those sort of things—but not the least important of these is one which writes in the State Vehicle Code a prohibition against littering roadsides with trash.

The new statute allows a peace officer to cite anyone littering the highway and establishes penalties for violations. Ordinary decency and a regard for appearances deters most people from tossing litter such as cans, bottles, paper and unwanted food from their cars, and it is for them the law has been enacted.

It will be well now to carry a trash bag in the car for deposit in roadside trash receptacles or in the garbage cans at home.

If the motorist yields to a temptation to strew the road with trash, he is likely to be cited and brought into court. For the first offense the fine on conviction is $50.

DRIVER EDUCATION

We don't know what books say in driver education used at our schools, but there should be something warning young drivers to keep their left elbows well inside the window and the left hand on the steering wheel when passing cars travelling in the opposite direction. Somewhere the book should point out that it is not only discourteous, but also unsafe to drive up alongside the right side of a car coming to a halt at a stop sign or traffic light, then gunning the motor across the intersection to flash ahead of the first car. We don't know if the book has anything in it about driving on a four-lane road, diving from one lane to another between speeding cars, but a lot of accidents happen from this common practice.

Driving courtesy is a quality of good manners. Somewhere in the course of study, a point should be be made of this.

A LETTER FROM HARRY

Harry Truman has written another letter. But this one makes sense.

Taking time out from his preparations for a "give-'em hell" stump tour aimed at softening up the Republican party for next year's campaign, the former President the other day gave the Senate committee on juvenile delinquency a bit of old-fashioned advice. He wrote:

"If you want my opinion—which you did not request but which I gladly volunteer—the best cure is for the mamas and papas to stay at home and raise their families. The responsibility of bringing up the next generation rests squarely on their shoulders. I do not believe in baby-sitters or sending children to boarding schools just because the parents are too lazy to look after them. Besides, children nowadays have too many gadgets to fool with and not enough chores."

We can think of quite a few people who won't entirely agree—including the kids. But it would make an interesting topic for a group of parents who have left the tots at home under teen-age care so they can discuss how to be better dads and moms.

SAFETY COMMISSION

Police Chief Robert Locke, a keen student of traffic safety, is looking for one or two persons in Campbell who are qualified and willing to serve on the County Traffic Safety Commission. This is an important organization, functioning under a state program and seeking greater safety on the highways, grade crossings and other danger points.

With schools opening soon, with more and more cars on the road, with more powerful motors in use. there is a definite need for caution. It is in this field that the commission works as a public service. Anyone interested in this project should talk it over with Chief Locke.

LABOR DAY

American labor unions are proud of gains made in harmonious relations with management in spite of instances of violent disagreements. There are instances in all lines of business, industry and government in which the worker gives no more than is required and who then advises other workers to do the same. There are many more conscientious workers who take full pride in their product or project. This is a conclusion one reaches reluctantly and in a broad way. What American labor needs today, and what unions should demand, is a return to the pride of workmanship. The American worker owes this not only to his employer but to himself and his family.

MY TOWN

"My town is the place where my home is founded, where my business is situated and where my vote is cast; where my children are educated, where my neighbors dwell and where my life is chiefly lived. It is the home spot for me.

"My town has the right of my civic loyalty. It supports me and I feel that I should support it. My town wants my citizenship, not my partisanship; my friendliness, not my dissension; my sympathy, not my criticism; my intelligence, not my indifference. My town supplies me with protection, trade, friends, education, schools, churches, and the right to free moral American citizenship."—Contributed.

The Campbell Gambol

AFTER 39 years and two months in postal service, Dan Yeager yesterday evening cased his last letter at the Campbell post office, stepped on the starter of his Model-A Ford and took off in second-gear for home while fellow postal workers were calling, "Good luck, Dan!" after him . . Dan has a fancy for Model T and Moled A Ford cars and wouldn't have anything to do with other makes since he started rural route service in Campbell in January, 1921 . . . he really entered postal service at San Jose in 1916 under Frank Hughes, riding a bicycle with special delivery letters, later with a horse and cart delivering a route . . . Hughes later became superintendent of mails and was only recently retired . . . Yeager transferred to Alameda postoffice and went on foot delivery while going to night school and where he became interested in Ford cars, gathering all sorts of parts which he finally assembled and made it chug . . . so he came to Campbell with it in 1921 and for three years used it to deliver mail on the rural route . . . they say he carried along a pair of scales supposedly for weighing packages but much more frequently were used along the route to weigh babies . . in 1924 he bought a new Model-T Ford from Grim & Ireland at their garage corner of Dillon and Campbell avenues, which car he drove on the route until 1934 when it was replaced with a Model-A that was short-lived because it was involved in a wreck and was replaced with another of similar make which was in service here until last night as shown in the picture on page one . . . Dan Yeager says he cut wheelsizes to 16-inch so that he could run constantly in second gear along the route left foot free for the brake, left hand on the steering wheel and right hand free to poke letters in mail boxes along the route while he was in the center of the seat . . . he has maintained at least one extra Model-T or Model-A car for service in recent years . . . folks along the route got to know him and his frequent honk from a bellows horn in earlier days and children watched for his car and ran along side as he called them all by first names, many probably having been weighed on his scales when they were infants . . . he does not deny that at some time or other he matched a spool of thread in one of the Campbell store when off duty and delivered it next day to a grateful postal patron, but says that was not acting according to regulations, although more than one of the 150 friends at his farewell dinner at Villa Felice on Saturday night could recall some such experiences for them or their parents . . . so today Dan Yeager is no longer carrier on Rural Route 1. . . Campbell passing into a new era is about to give up both rural routes and in about 30 days have ten city delivery routes . . . instead of three postal employes there are 23 in Campbell, service is to 22,188 patrons in 8000 homes and annual receipts are over $75,000.

CITY COUNCILMEN Were in a dither at the meeting Monday night because office of County Tax Collector insisted we change our tax rate so it would have no more than three decimal figures . . . County tabulating machines, a bit antiquated, can't handle five decimals like machines used in most counties, large businesses and schools, so the previous ordinance setting the Campbell tax rate at $.74156 had to be rescinded and another adopted setting the rate at $.742 . . . councilmen also got a surprise announcement from Elmer D'Angelo, young engineer serving pro-tem for vacationing Mark Tomas, that it won't be necessary to dedicate the north end of Harrison Street because he had found a 1938 subdivision map approved by the county on which Harrison street from Tubby to Hamilton had been dedicated to its full width by the county 14 years before Campbell was incorporated.

MILPITAS ENGINEER HAS A NEW TITLE

MILPITAS — Mark Thomas "lost" his city engineer's job here Tuesday night and got another one, all within the space of a few minutes. City Council repealed a resolution establishing the position of city enginner and enacted another creating the position of consulting engineer. In each case the engineer is—Mark Thomas. He keeps his $100 per month retainer and will bill the city separately for special projects.

New Steps On Butano Taken By Park Board

The State Park Commission meeting Friday at Eureka authorized state purchase of Butano Forest from Santa Cruz Lumber Company for a 2400 acre park. A conference with Governor Knight on inclusion of the item in the 1956 budget was proposed.

Presented by Commissioner Charles Kasch of Ukiah, an eight-point resolution also approved the revised park plan and ordered the return of matching money and lands—totaling more than $1,000,000—which had been put up on the basis of an original plan from a 3120-acre park.

The omnibus park bill passed by the Legislature and vetoed by Governor Knight called for a 3120-acre park. As soon as the governor killed the bill the Santa Cruz lumber concern started logging off a 720- acre section.

Subsequently, State Director of Natural Resources DeWitt Nelson, without knowledge of the commission, entered into an agreement relinquishing the 720-acres and permitting the company to make selective logging on one half of another 320-acre parcel on which it holds the timber rights.

A storm of protest arose and the Santa Cruz company agreed earlier this week to withhold logging on the 160-acre section until after the 1956 session of the Legislature.

Because the plan agreed to by Nelson was substantially different from the original proposal, San Mateo, Santa Clara and San Francisco Counties and Butano Associates were forced to withdraw offers of land and money to match the state's contribution for the forest.

Recognizing the material change from the initial plan, the commission resolution ordered the return of funds and the relinquishing of deeds San Mateo County had deposited covering the Mt. Madonna and San Mateo County Parks.

Working under Secretary of War Jefferson Davis, Edward F. Beale brought a group of camels to California for Army transport work.

Hearing Here For Bus Line Bid For Cambrian Service

A public hearing has been scheduled in the Country Woman's Club, Campbell, by Public Utilities Commission for next Wednesday morning on request of Almaden Stages to extend its bus service to Cambrian Park and South Willow Glen.

The company now operates as far as Hacienda Gardens on Foxworthy avenue and wants to extend the route some four more miles in the Cambrian Park area.

FIVE CANDIDATES FOR CUPERTINO COUNCIL

CUPERTINO—With 24 hours to go, five candidates had filed for election to a city council to serve if voters approve incorporation at an election September 27. WHAT IT TAKES

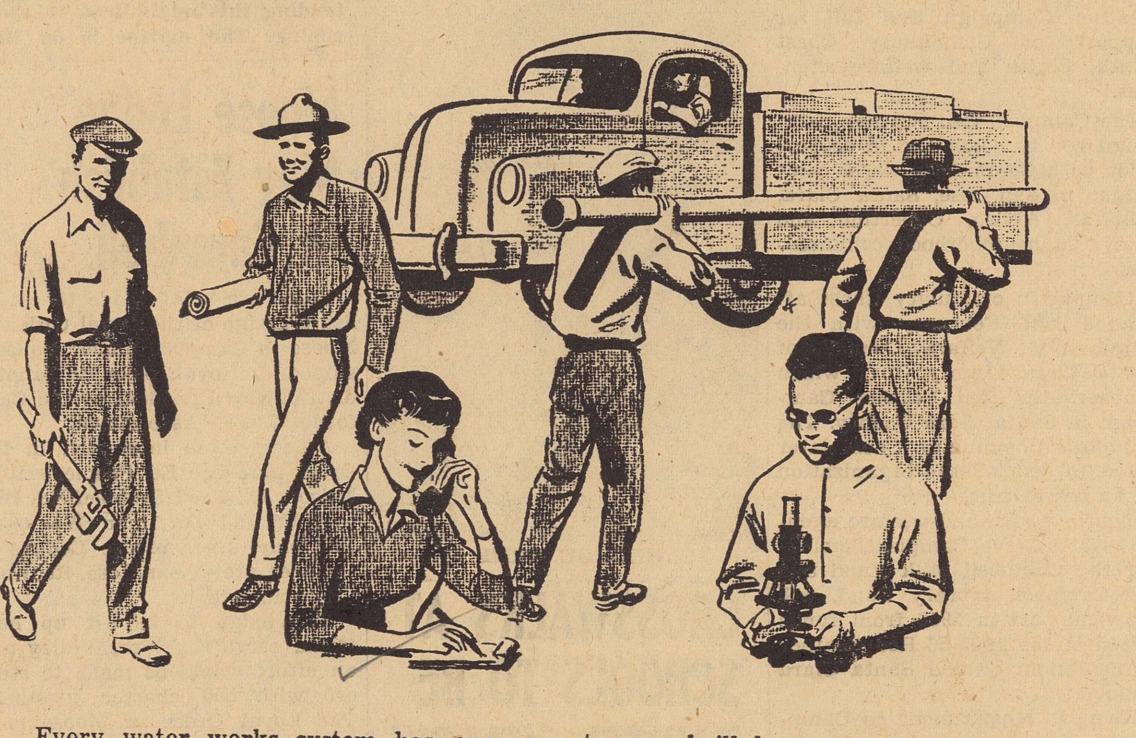
To Supply Your Home With Water Every Day



Every water works system has one man who jumps every time he hears a phone ring. That man is the superintendent, and it's his job to see that when you turn on the faucet you have a safe, dependable supply of water at adequate pressure at all times. Behind the superintendent is a team of maintenance crews who help him do the job, but the primary responsibility is his.

Here at San Jose Water Works our general superintendent for the last six years has been Neumann Duchene, or "Swede" as he's known to all his co-workers.

From Lake Elsman, with its two billion gallon capacity, high up in the Santa Cruz Mountains above Los Gatos, right down to the shut-off valve nearest your home, "Swede" Duchene knows the 800 miles of pipe in our system like the back of his hand.

If anything happens that threatens to interrupt service to one of our 61,000 customers, he'll have a maintenance crew on the job within minutes, day or night, and he'll also have a way figured out to keep water in your faucet while repairs are being made.

"Swede" started at San Jose Water Works in 1937. One of his first jobs was as a draftsman in the engineering department, and he has moved steadily up since then. A native of South Dakota, he's lived in San Jose since 1932. Before becoming a water works man, he had a thorough experience in the construction business. He calls on that backlog of experience every day, and some nights, too—in helping deliver water to you 24 hours a day, 365 days a year.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Larkin of 200 Harrison Avenue have returned from a week's vacation trip through the redwood trees and up around the Oregon border. Friday Mrs. Larkin, who is co-owner of Rachel's, will fly to Long Beach to visit her son Paul Jr. and daughter-in-law who have been stationed at the naval base this summer. On her return trip Mrs. Larkin Sr., will be accompanied by her son's wife who will teach at an Oakland school while her husband is at sea.

Police Chief Robert Locke and family have just moved into their newly built home at 164 Christopher avenue. They formerly lived near Cambrian School on Casey Road.

Frank Knox of Milton Avenue is seeing to it that each of his three sons has a private vacation with him, and is thus able to cater to each individual taste. Last weekend, oldest boy, Bruce, and his father each mounted a motor scooter and travelled around Sonora County visiting the Y. M. C. A. Camp where Bruce has been assisting as counselor. This coming weekend Allan, a Campbell High sophomore, is taking off alone with his father to that same general area—only by car, as Allan is still a little young yet for the scooter. Then it will come around to nine year old Kent's turn, who will be the recipient of his father's undivided attention for a week-end.

Alice Jones of 201 Cherry Lane is the Hi Neighbor girl on the switchboard at the Santa Clara County Fair.

Two week old Sharon Mabel McFarland was visiting her granparents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur D. McFarland of White Oaks Road, and this little lady was really the center of a great deal of attention. She is the first girl in the McFarland family in over eighty years. Of course, her parents were with her also. Her father, a Campbell High grad, is now getting ready for his first teaching job in Turlock. He is Voyle F. Mc Farland, and he and three of his brothers established some sort of a record last September. Robert, Arthur, Gary and Voyle all were married that month, and all to Campbell and San Jose girls.

Newcomers in the Campbell area are Mr. and Mrs. Alfred M. Frates, who recently bought a home at 950 Burrows Road. The Frates have been living in San Diego for the past three years, but have lived in the East foot hills prior to that, for seven years. Originally from New Bedford, Mass., Mrs. Frates reports she is very happy to be back in Santa Clara County and one of her first transactions was to subscribe to the Campbell Press. Twenty year old Lucille lives with her parents, and works in San Jose. Lucille's twin brother, Lawrence, is in the Navy, is married, has one child, and lives in San Jose. Another daughter, Mrs. Leonard Sagerty lives on Emory Street, is known locally as western singer Kitty Dale, and has three children, with another expected. On Winchester Road is another daughter, Mrs. John Rogers, with four children in the family. A son, Charles, with two children, is living at present with his parents. Alfred, Jr., has remained in New Bedford, and he is father of three children.

Proud parents of a new son are Mr. and Mrs. David Keesling of 421 San Jose-Los Gatos Road. The new baby, born August 2, has been named Keith Kevin.

Dr. and Mrs. Corwin Olds of N. Second Street, are home again after a two week camping trip at Frazier and Thompson River Canyons in interior British Columbia. En route they stopped to see daughter Jessie in Eugene, Oregon, and Mrs. Old's cousin in Vancouver.

Douglas Manfre, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Manfre of W. Latimer Avenue, is convalescing at home after a ten day stay in the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Gupton and son David of 20 Hardy Avenue spent their two week vacation at Clear Lake. The Guptons took along their own motor boat and tried a little water skiing.

Harry Rediker, one of Rotary's members, is reported recuperating from a heart attack in Lady Elizabeth Bruce Memorial Hospital at Inverness, British Columbia. The Redikers, who live at 1415 Meridian Road, were on their vacation.

Mrs. D. R. Given of Smith Avenue flew to Alamosa, Colorado, Saturday to attend the funreal of her sister, Mrs. Bertha Berryman, who died of injuries sustained in an auto accident three weeks ago.

IMPRESSIONS OF U.N. MEETING TOLD BY CAMPBELL TEACHER

Mrs. Adele Charlson, head of the Homemaking department of Campbell High School, was singled out in June as one of the two representatives of F. H. A. in the United States, to attend the United Nations Commemorative Meeting on San Francisco. The other representative was Miss Mildred Huber, state advisor of Future Homemakers of America, who was chosen by the national office to represent F. H. A. at the meeting. She in turn selected Mrs. Charlson as the second representative.

Filled with enthusiasm by the memorial event she had witnessed, Mrs. Charlson jotted down her thoughts and impressions at the close of the sessions. The following is her story in part.

By Adele Charlson

Excitement was in the air for the afternoon session. We arrived early at the Opera House and were among the first to enter. The stage was set. There was much to see and the world was here!

First the flood lights and photographers took the eye. The movie cameras, television cameras, newspaper photographers, all had choice positions in the boxes. Telescopic lenses reached down to grab that sensational shot. Before the program began, the roving photographers were on the stage and just every where vying for choice subjects. At the proper moment, the stage manager stopped them and the dash for boxes was on.

The next thing we investigated was earphones. An I. B. M. set with earphones, battery, volume dial and language dial was installed at every seat. I discovered that I understood English, number 2 on the dial, best. The interpreters were in glassed-in booths in the rear of the opera house. The language each spoke was written on a cardboard placed in the front window of each booth. French, English, Spanish and Russian were the most used. I was especially impressed with the excellent English used by so many of the diplomats from far away lands. Could it be that someday English will be the world language?

The delegates section, marked by pennants, each with the name of a member nation, became fascinating to watch. Filipino women in costume, women of India wearing saris, Arabian men in tunic and turban. Most of the men, however wore western dress and were in appearance, if not thought, very much alike.

The stage was beautiful with the 60 flags across the back. For this first session only gilt chairs were on the stage for the diplomats representing each country. A table was arranged for the President and secretary-general of the United Nations. To the left was a large tapestry-covered chair designated for President Eisenhower. Molotov arrived early and enjoyed the limelight.

At three o'clock, plain clothes men, in groups of three, were spotted on each side of the platform and around the hall, constantly scanning the audience. More were seen peering from behind drapes on stage. The Boy Scouts were there, too.

When President Eisenhower arrived the entire assembly rose to its feet and applauded for minutes. He first bowed his head, almost as if in humble prayer, and then lifted his face and gave to all his famous smile. His speech was beautifully but cautiously given, and interrupted many times by applause. The President left and secret service men too. The mayor and governor's speeches followed. And so ended the first session.

Each succeeding day brought inspiration from every member nation of the U. N.. Since this meeting was intended as an anniversary, it was kept for the most part, on an agreeable plane, though Chili and Nationalist China added sparks which brought spectators to the edges of their seats.

To me in addition to President Eisenhower's speech, the choicest pieces of oratory came from General Carlos Romulo of the Philippines, and our own Secretary of State, John Foster Dulles.

My feeling, at the end of a great week and sixty speeches, was, truly that the world wants peace.

'Moon Is Blue' To Open Tomorrow In Circle Theatre

"The Moon Is Blue" the Broadway comedy hit, is to open tomorrow at the Summer Circle Theatre in the Hotel Lyndon, Los Gatos, and play every Friday and Saturday in the month of September; with Pat Branch in the role of the "professional virgin," Patty O'Neill, whose cautious and disturbing maneuvers between two helplessly entranced men on a New York spring night forms the plot of the play.

Frank Hawkes and Lyland Mills will appear as the two men in the cast.

Written by F. Hugh Herbert, "The Moon Is Blue played in New York for 27 months to packed houses, while two other companies ran up extensive runs in Chicago, Boston and other cities.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph "Streak" Ciraulo, of 2114 Walnut Grove, and Mrs. Ciraulo's mother Mrs. Tom Falletta spent one week of their vacation visiting "Streak's" wartime buddy, B. W. Kress, in Englewood. While there they visited Disneyland, Knox Berry Farm, Forest Lawn and Farmers Market. The second week "Streak" says they loafed around home and he played quite a bit of golf.

The president, Mrs. Cora Kaufmann, asks everyone having bags ready, to bring them to this meeting.

In July members entertained their "trailers" with a 11:00 a. m. brunch at Hawaiian Gardens. Tables were decorated with colorful dahlias by Mrs. Lawrence Hendricks. Entertainment was furnished by Mrs. Glen Skillrud, who played several piano selections, and Norman Hollingsworth in humorous character pantomimes.

Garden Club To Hold Work Meet

Campbell Garden Club members will hold a work meeting at the fairgrounds at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning, to help a committee headed by Mrs. Fred Seymour put the finishing touches on the group's garden entry.

At their last meeting members proved they could cook as well as garden when they held their annual potluck luncheon at the home of Mrs. Fred H. Smith on San Tomas Road. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. H. D. Blohm and Mrs. Lloyd Brown.

Mrs. A. A. Higdon, chairman of the Fall Flower Show, announced the Ssow will be held Tuesday, November 2, at the Virginian Restaurant in Campbell. More details will be announced later.

Guest speaker was Mrs. C. A. Drake, club garden consultant, who advised members that now is the time to transplant and divide oriental poppies and hybrid amaryllis, and to fertilize dahlias.

Let's stop wasting money and lives—help prevent forest fires.

Mothers' Tea By Camp Fire Girls

The Wa-Cha-Zu-Ki Camp Fire girls of Campbell entertained their mothers with a tea at the home of Dr. and Mrs. L. C. Jauncey last Sunday afternoon. Shirley Shanks, president, welcomed the guests, who included her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Shanks. Shirley also explained that the girls in the group, all of whom are going into the fifth grade, chose the Indian name, which means "friends and good citizens working together with a purpose.".

Donna Cardona, treasurer, read the Camp Fire Law and explained its meaning. Each girl told her Indian name and the English interpretation, and they sang Wohelo, which was described as the watchword of Camp Fire and means work, health and love.

Other guests and girls present were Donna's mother, Mrs. Thomas Cardona; Mrs. Harold Danner and daughter Lou Ann, who was hostess for the afternoon. Mrs. Robert Anderson, whose daughter, Virginia, is vice-president of the group; Mrs. Jack Onete and Dorothey; Mrs. Harold Kellar and Judy; Mrs. Jean McGraw and Cathy. Other parents were Mrs. Harry Story and her daughter Cathy; Mrs. Howard Manson and Marcia, secretary. In addition, Nancy Cox from Cupertino, a member of the group, was present on the occasion, with her father. The grandmother of Lou Ann Danner, Mrs. Flora Stookey, enjoyed the afternoon also.

Dr. and Mrs. Jauncey explained the meaning and purposes of Camp Fire to the parents. Dr. Jauncy told the gathering that Camp Fire, the guardians find while girls gain a great deal from that they, too, are receiving an education in child psychology, and develop poise in addressing groups. In addition, the adults join with the girls in the fun of learning crafts and in the satisfaction of participating in the many community services for which Camp Fire is noted.

CITY BURNING CAUSE OF SMOG

Four cities in Santa Clara County were scolded Monday by Dr. W. Elwyn Turner, county health director for permitting open burning on their garbage dumps which he said made smog. In a lettter to the Board of Supervisors he stated that Palo Alto, Mountain View, Sunnyvale and San Jose are violating sections of the state health and safety code by open burning observed over a ten day period in February.

He pointed out that private dump operators have not discontinued such burning despite the bad example set by the cities.

In the last five years, Turner said, the county's fight to control air pollution has in general been very successful. The health director praised industries for their cooperation and pointed out that a number of them have installed expensive air pollution control equipment.

Some slight air pollution damage of agricultural crops has been observed, Dr. Turner added, but it was not of economic significance.

CAMPBELL REGISTER

The Clifford Gerlach family had a very active summer, commencing with family camping at El Dorado, Lake Tahoe. Sherry and Tom Kelly, neighborhood children, went along on this trip. Campbell High student, Gail, motored through the Southwest and Mexico with the Joseph Frias family. Gail reports they missed the floods, but were in the midst of many dust storms. Gary enjoyed a visit with friends in Vallejo. Mrs. Gerlach, is all set to take up her duties as home teacher for the Campbell district.

Another new family in the Campbell has recently moved into a new home at 1055 White Oaks Road. They are Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Morser and their two children. Gay is eleven years old and is going into the sixth grade at Cambrian. Randy will be a second grader at the same school. The Morsers lived in San Jose for a year, and before that were in San Joaquin Valley, where for five years Mr. Morser was director of public works in one of the towns. A licensed contractor, he is specializing in swimming pool construction.

Members of the Campbell Planning Commission attended a dinner meeting Monday evening at Adobe Creek Lodge and heard Assemblyman Clark L. Bradley ask for better cooperation between conuty and city planning commissions in matters related to "fringe areas" around cities. Attending the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Homer Hyde, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Solari, Mrs. Evelyn Adamson and Nestor Barrett.

Mrs. Margaret Leick and Mrs. Betty Grizzle are back on the job again after a quick trip to Los Angeles last week. Mrs. Leick went down for a family reunion and to bid her sister, Paulina Mary, goodbye before she sailed for Louvain, Belgium, to study under a scholarship award. Mrs. Grizzle visited friends, toured Disneyland and Knox Berry Farm.

Recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Janes of 1346 Regina Way were Mrs. Janes' sister, Miss Mildred Phillips of Kingman, Arizona, who made a two week visit, and Mrs. Olivia Shantz of Los Angeles, Mr. Janes' aunt, who was on her way home after attending the wedding of a nephew in Canada. Mrs. Shantz left for Los Angeles Tuesday.

Eastfield Rummage To Feature Better Dresses And Gifts

The annual Eastfield rummage sale will be held this year on September 15 and 16 at 50 N. San Pedro Street, San Jose, Mrs. Ralph Hyde announced today.

This sale, organized by Eastfield's senior board members, is said to be the largest held in the valley. It will consist of seventeen different departments, including one for better dresses, to be called "The French Room", and an Antique and Gift department.

Local members on the Eastfield board of directors, and Junior Auxiliary members, to act as saleswomen are: Mrs. Ralph Hyde, Mrs. Edward Gans, Mrs. A. L. Gladding, Mrs. Donald Kiser, Mrs. Richard W. Morton, Mrs. William Puterbaugh, and Mrs. Henry Viehweger.

Eastfield is the oldest welfare organization in San Jose and cares for needy children of every race and creed. By supplying skilled counselors, as well as psychiatric and psychological guidance to those children damaged by tragic past experiences, Eastfield tries to help the child adjust to community life. Every attempt is made to provide a homelike atmosphere.

Although Eastfield is partially supported by the Community Chest, supplementary funds are essential to balance the budget. These funds are provided, in part, by the proceeds of this annual rummage sale.

SC County Group Presses For Crossing Safety

Mrs. Grace MacDonald, chairman of Santa Clara County Committee for Railroad Grade Crossing Safety, Monday urged supervisors to take a more vigorous approach to this problem.

She asked the Board to bring dangerous crossings into talks with state officials concerning a freeway route between San Jose and Gilroy.

Last year eight motorists were killed in auto-train wrecks in that area, she said.

Mrs. MacDonald reminded supervisors that her group favors a service road parallel to U. S. 101 to eliminate some grade crossings.

She suggested that members of Congress from this area be asked to work for inclusion of funds for construction of over-passes and underpasses in federal highway legislation.

Four Year Program Set Up For Scouts

The Boy Scouts of America will launch on January 1, 1956 a four-year program known as "Onward for God and My Country" to help prepare America's boyhood to live in today's world and to prepare them to carry their full share in the days ahead, it was announced by C. D. Bartlett, Scout Executive of the Santa Clara County Council of the organization.

Bartlett and three men on his staff are leaving today for the Tenth National Training Conference of over 2,700 Boy Scout Executives, full-time professional leaders of the organization, to be held at the University of Michiaan, Ann Arbor, Michigan.

Attending the conference with Bartlett from this area are Harold Alexander, Assistant Scout Executive; and Allen Gerblick, Field Executive.

Dr. Arthur A. Schuck, Chief Scout Executive of the Boy Scouts of America and chairman of the conference, will present the opening challenge during the first formal session tomorrow evening. He has been active in Scouting for 42 years both as a volunteer and professional leader.

Dr. Herold C. Hunt, Eliot Professor of Education, Harvard University, Cambridge, Mass., will speak Saturday evening, Sept. 3, on "American Ideals and Their Promotion through Scouting".

INK STAINS

By HELEN McLEOD

BIRTHDAY PARTY at Saratoga Springs last Thursday for six year old Cynthia Houge of Union Avenue, those invited being Susan Heald, Kathy Groth, Patti Kersgard, Susan Oster, Martha Sue Cumming, David and Cynthia Houge. Cynthia is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Houge. NEXT DAY I made a few interesting discoveries by having a similar event for a daughter of mine. When you take fourteen children, ranging in ages from six to twelve, to an outdoor location where there is a pool, you have these advantages: (1) No wear and tear on the home or nerves. (2) children are entertained without too much effort on the part of adults. (3) An alert lifeguard at a not too crowded pool also doubles as baby sitter while mother arranges the tables for lunch, cake and ice-cream. I found out something else, that even childen of that age know how to dance be-bop, or are at least willing to learn from the ones who do. Had I learned this sooner, I wouldn't have exhausted myself galloping around playing "hunt the Deer" all through the woods. The children probably went along with the game because they didn't want to spoil my fun.

SMALL BUSINESS MEN report that profits are coming in nicely this summer. Interviewing some of the roadside lemonade sellers last week brought out a few fects about profit and loss that should be of interest to industry every where. Other children are the biggest buyers of lemonade, and the most uncritical of watery appearances or lack of ice. They might buy one glass full for a nickel, but the turnover is greater, thus profits higher, if the price is kept down to one or two cents. The occasional adult who buys this beverage often asks many personal questions, such as, "Did you or your mother make the lemonade?" or "Have you made much money today"? or "Are you sure this is a clean glass?" The cagey merchant is better off if he confines his answers to monosyllables—there's no need to take offense over such impertinence. The aduls often gives a nickel when a penny is all that is asked.

THE PHONE RINGS, a voice asks if this is the lady of the house, then announces that you are lucky enough to be called by So and So Photo Studio's Quiz program. A simple question is then asked, such as which book through the ages has been the best seller. You say the Bible. You are informed that you are the winner and are now entitled to a number of portraits from So and So's Photo studio, at just half price. This has happened lately to many people around here, and is an excellent technique for making a sale without getting the receiver slammed on the ear too quickly.

GETTING LITTLE NEWS ITEMS sometimes runs the reporter into difficulties. Recently, I phoned a woman, and the husband answered. No, his wife wasn't in, but could he take a message. Yes, tell her Mrs. McLeod called and wonders if she has any news. When wife returned, husband tells her of the suspicious phone call, and asks her if she is selling gossip to some character. IN ANOTHER CASE, last year, I heard that a family was leaving on a trip. I called, and asked if I could put an item about the vacation in the paper. Extracting the information was a problem, and as soon as I hung up, the man of the family called the paper to verify if such a person as myself worked there. He was assured all was legitimate, and was promised the item would not appear until his return. He thought it was a housebreaker lining up the next job. Which is why we don't like to print items about people being gone if the house is vacant. The police tell us there are criminals looking in papers for just such information.

WHICH BRINGS US TO Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Jones, who have now returned from a trip to Texas. Older daughter Joanne went ahead by airplane, and was bridesmaid at her cousin's wedding. Adrian, Jr., Billy and Betty followed in the car with their parents.

AFTER IT'S PRINTED, I don't have to read it—this column. While looking at classified last week, my eyes happened to pass over the last item. It started out: Mrs. Carlton was very delighted. . . ." I admit many things are wrong with my reporting, but I don't commit the offense of giving out with "Mrs. Smith had a shower . . " without supplying the first name or initial to identify for the readers which Mrs. Smith I meant. In the case last week, the person gladsome over the arrival of a brother was Mrs. Carlton Batchelder. Which brings me to a question. How did the error appear in the paper? In the first column I wrote for the Press, I rejoiced that I was writing for a paper in which, if errors appear, they are the writer's own, not the composing room. I realize now that was foolish of me, because I have always found throughout the years that errors of all kinds can be laid on the composing room, and the reader or advertiser is satisfied. This phrase "It was a composing room error" invokes a mental image in the hearer's mind of a cavernous room with huge robot-operated presses and linotype machines. Whie adjustments and corrections are, of course, given because of printed errors, no anger or blame is laid on the reporter or ad salesman by the customer. On the other hand, there is no feeling of violence felt toward the ocmposing room—it is a too impersonal department. So by my own previous contention about the blameless Campbell Press composing room, I have unhorsed my self in this lifelong feud with that department. If an error may on occasion appear in these pages, then I can only assume that the malignant imp I knew so well in the composing room in Saratoga now dwells at the Campbell Press.

Louis F. Gill Claimed By Death

Private graveside services were held Tuesday at Golden Gate National Cemetery for Louis F. Gil, 54, who died Sunday in Oakland Veterans Hospital after a lengthy illness. He was a native Californian and had made his home at 350 Bedal Drive.

Gil served with the 16th Battalion of the Seabees in the Pacific during World War II. He was a member of Hugh Thomas Johnson Post No. 4336, Veterans of Foreign Wars, San Jose, and Local No. 3, Operating Engineers Union, San Jose.

He is survived by his widow, Rubinia; a daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Knoll of Campbell; and a brother and sister, Alfred L. Gil of Arnold, and Mrs. Marcella Boyd of San Lucas.

Morgan Hill Wants Sales Tax

The Morgan Hill City Council voiced approval of the proposed county-wide sales tax because an estimated half-cent tax increase would net Morgan Hill about $12,000 a year in added revenue. The tax has not yet been adopted by the County Supervisors because officials of various cities informally agreed to hold out for all the revenue collected in their areas.

Morgan Hill has set November 1 as the date for acting on the tax proposal.

Assemblyman Clark Bradley (R-San Jose), who drew up the measure in the last session of the state legislature, stated "There is nothing in the bill that says cities have to give any percentage to the county, but the Board of Supervisors cannot be forced to adopt a county-wide measure and therein lies the problem."

If the county does not act, he added, the cities would be left with the expense of collecting and processing their own tax and would not get any help from the Board of Equalization.

Bradley pointed out, of the cities refuse to adopt their own sales tax provisions and the supervisors enact the county-wide bill, then merchants would still have to collect the 1 per cent and give the entire amount to the county.

Music Director Is Named For Methodist Church

Katherine Burt Williams, vocal teacher and music therapist of San Jose, has been selected to fill the position of Director of Music for the First Methodist Church of Campbell. Miss Williams received her early musical training in Southern Kentucky, later graduating from the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music.

MISS KATHERINE WILLIAMS

While doing professional singing in Chicago and New York, she coached in oratorio with Dr. Edgar Nelson, president of the Chicago Conservatory and Estelle Liebing of New York City, who at that time was connected with the Curtis Institute of Music in Philadelphia.

Miss Williams has served as soloist and choir director in many churches in the Middle West and in San Jose.

For several years she was head of the Music Therapy Department at Palo Alto Veterans Hospital.

At the present time she is teaching voice and working as a therapist in her studio at San Jose and is directing the chorus of the San Jose Music Study Club.

Rehearsals of the senior and youth choirs of the First Methodist Church of Campbell begin this Thursday evening with a potluck supper at 6:00 P. M. High school youth will rehearse at 7:00 and the senior choir at 8:00 P. M. All interested persons are cordially invited.

Crop Prices On Prunes, Apricots Cited By Gomes

Final payments now being distributed by the California Prune and Apricot Growers Association, increase to more than $18.5 million the total returns to grower-members on 1954 crops.

These additional returns, supplementing recent tentative final returns, were reported by Joseph V. Gomes, Association director and Central Representative of the Campbell-Los Gatos Prune and Apricot Association, to be as follows: $19.39 per ton in cash for Dried Prunes: $77.98 per ton in cash for Dried Apricots; $50.49 per ton in cash and equitp for Dried Pears.

The Association's total returns on Fancy Quality French Prunes reflected a bulk basis price on sizes 34/36 of 14.07 cents, and 9.07 cents on sizes 97/101. A number of Apricot Grower-Members received over 50 cents per pound for their entire deliveries, including slabs and culls.

The final payment in 1954 crop prunes is made on 100 percent of each members deliveries, as is the total complete return. The twelve percent set-aside under the Federal Prune Marketing Order and the $3.00 per ton assessment on producers and handlers, under the California Prune Advisory Board program, were both taken care of by the Association from the entire pool.

Association Prune grower-members who suffered crop losses in the unseasonal rains of August, 1954, got $59.39 for each green Diversion Certificate, representing one ton, allotted to them. The Diversion Certificates were issued under the Federal Prune Marketing Order and filled the requirement for the diversion of the same quantity of prunes to the twelve percent surplus pool.

COUNTY TELLING BOND ISSUE NEED

Arguments for the five million dollar bond issue for county buildings are being prepared under direction of County Executive Frank Thill to be enclosed with copies of sample ballots.

Opponents of the bond issue have until Sept. 15 to outline their stand. Arguments must be less than 300 words in length.

The vote is slated for Oct. 25 on three propositions: $3,300,000 for County Hospital expansion, $1,500,000for a jail and law enforcement office building and $350,000 for a new juvenile hall.

It was sort of a family re-union on Casey Road for a couple of families recently. Mrs. Wade Flint, her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Stobbe, and their six week old baby, Deborah, came down from Portland, Oregon, to visit Mrs. Russell Sargent and Mrs. Glen Cook, sisters of Mrs. Flint.
